Parish Mission

Pope Francis has sent out a wake-up call for a new missionary outreach.

What better way to support this challenge than through a solid review of our Faith as presented in the Catechism of the Catholic Church, the first universal summary of her teachings in 400 years.

This in-depth presentation would bring parishioners to a greater level of appreciation of what it means to be a Catholic and inspire them to actively engage in Pope Francis' evangelical mission to the whole world!

Here is a suggested schedule:

7:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.

Sunday: What the Catholic Church believes (The Creed)

Monday: What the Catholic Church celebrates (Sacraments)

Tuesday: What the Catholic Church prays (the Our Father, prayer, spiritual life)

Wednesday: What the Catholic Church lives (Commandments, Natural Family Planning and its impact on marriage and family life, Theology of the Body according to the mind of John Paul II - overview).

Confessions at opportune times

Program is flexible, according to local needs

From Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger:
The crisis the Church is going through,
particularly in the United States, is "a weakness of faith" that calls for conversion and "clear moral teaching." (Zenit.org)

Testimonials

"I continually have a steady flow of new penitents who directly or indirectly come from your parish mission...I hope more parishes invite you to the Archdiocese of Detroit."

Fr. Paul Wood
Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Imlay City, MI

"Many, many thanks for a wonderful mission. Our Lady of the Rosary will never be the same again after your Lenten mission."

Fr. Dac T. Tran, OFM, Greenville, SC

"I attended three of your four talks this past week during the mission you gave at Annunciation Parish. A previous commitment precluded me going on Wednesday night...I heard that you received a standing ovation. Rightly so."

Mr. Harvey Bailey, Hamilton, Ont., Canada

"It's a real blessing for all of us to hear your message."

Mr. David P. Iacono, St. Lawrence Church, Tampa, FL

"Parents were pleased with what their children remembered and repeated to them. Teens came back evenings in succession. Older parishioners were happy to hear things they had not heard in many years. People were appreciative to hear teachings they knew but had forgotten, and are still sharing this fact with parish leaders weeks after the mission...Many have returned to the Sacrament of Reconciliation after many years. We had some return to the practice of their faith."

Ann M. Kolb, St. Mary's Church, Greenville, Ohio
Director of Religious Education

"We have heard many positive comments and compliments about your visit with us. May God bless you and help you continue your good work."

Jeanie Klepinger, Business Manager, All Saints Parish Logansport, IN
